

morton.

Woolloomooloo 14 Bland Street

🏠 2 📄 1

A cute terrace exuding an irresistible charm, this perfectly positioned house is one to fall in love with. Just seconds from the Woolloomooloo harbourfront and a stroll to the Botanic Gardens and CBD, it is a truly rare find in a burgeoning area, set over 2 levels at the end of a small row of terraces, the ground floor features a cosy and fully renovated living area and adjoining, open ended kitchen, plus a brand new bathroom with adjacent laundry built in to amalgamate space and a seamless design. Ascending the stairs, you will find the 2 bright bedrooms, the main with b/ins and north-facing heritage balcony, the 2nd with cupboard space and nice southerly aspect. An adorable abode after an extensive renovation, this super-quiet residence has been turned into a delightful place to call "home"

Features Include:

- Set in a quiet cul-de-sac, quick walk to harbour foreshore
- Quaint end-of-row terrace, a sunny north-facing aspect
- Double-brick construction, nice and quiet internal space
- Security screen and fly screen for added privacy

morton.com.au

View

As advertised or by appointment

Agent

Sarah Fowell

📧 sarah@morton.com.au