GET TO KNOW YOUR THORNTON COMMUNITY GROUP INC. COMMITTEE

Nic McIntyre
Vice President

Thornton Community Group Inc.

How long have you lived in Thornton? If you are comfortable to answer – do you live with family and any pets?

I've lived in Thornton since April, but I visited a lot prior to becoming a resident and knew this was home for me. I have 2 dogs a cavoodle and a chiweenie, 2 spinifex hopping mice 2 tarantulas and a budgie.

What do you love most about Thornton....and what has surprised you most about living in the area?

I just love how welcoming everyone was when I initially moved in. People passing on the street take the time to greet you is quite surprising, but it is what I love.

You are the new Vice President of the Community Group. Were you a member of the Group prior to taking on this role or did you jump straight into your role as part of the management committee?

I was a member for a very short time before becoming Vice President, I loved what this group did and was excited to be more involved.

What prompted and motivated you to get involved with the Community Group?

Being new to the area I wanted to get active within the community and get more hands on with the projects I was reading about in WOTS. This also allowed me to meet some incredible people who I now proudly call my friends.

With the new Committee in place will existing activities run by the Group continue?

Some of our activities will definitely be continuing and we have some exciting new ones coming up!

What are you excited about based on plans discussed by the new Committee? Can you share any secrets?

There are so many exciting projects coming up that I am proud to now be a part of....but my lips are sealed ;) You will need to join us on the committee to get the hot goss....or at the very least keep watch on this newsletter and the Thornton Community Group Facebook page.

GET TO KNOW YOUR COMMUNITY

Opening the Door to Thornton Business Matt and Mark - Rusty Penny Brewing

How long have you been in operation?

We started as a homebrew supply store in 2016 but then built and opened our own brewery in 2018 around the corner in Dean Place. We were excited to open the doors to our expanded Rusty Penny Brewery in Coreen Ave in February 2022. It still offers more space but the same authentic, immersive brewery experience where you can drink the beer while the brew masters make it around you!

Why did you decide to specialise in beer?

Mark and I have been homebrewers since 2007 and just love craft beer. We would regularly travel to the breweries in Marrickville and wanted to bring the magic of that experience to people back home in Penrith.

What do you love about operating your business here?

We love servicing our local community. It brings us a lot of joy and to see people enjoy the products that we make locally.

How well do you know your customers?

All our customers from the original Dean Place site are more like friends than customers and it is great they have followed us to this expanded space. It is much bigger and it is really exciting that we are welcoming so many new faces. It might take a bit of time but we are really looking forward to getting to know everyone by name.

What is your most popular drink?

Our most popular beer is probably The Nepean "the beer of Penrith". It's an Australian pale ale and not overly hoppy so it appeals to both craft and non-craft beer drinkers.

Is there a drink that you think people should definitely try?

People should definitely try our seasonal and limited-edition beers. That's where we really push the limits of what beer is. We recently teamed up with a local coffee roaster, Underground Coffee Roasters, to brew a toasted coconut and coffee pale ale. It was a very fun beer.

Exciting times ahead for the Thornton Community Group Inc with a new Management Committee elected at the recent meeting.

Huge thanks to the tireless work of the previous Committee who have created an impressive legacy of amazing community events and created a wonderful, strong foundation of support and participation on which the new Committee plans to build.
